

New Tax Filing Deadlines

March 20, 2020

This morning the U.S. Treasury Secretary, Steven Mnuchin, announced the US Department of Treasury is moving the tax filing deadline from April 15, 2020 to July 15, 2020. This applies to individuals and businesses.

We are now waiting on the IRS to issue guidance on how they plan to implement the change as tweets only allow for limited communication of information.

We also look forward to see how the states, particularly Michigan, react. As of this time, the MI-1040 for individuals is still due on April 15, 2020.

Please stay tuned for further updates as they are released.
